

20 December 2010

After the excitement of last week it was back to bread and butter issues this week. The celebrations continued well into the week as the boys let themselves go with a well earned break. There was certainly a feel good factor about the town with everyone in good form. It was great to receive so many messages of congratulations from people and organisations from outside the county. The club have built a huge fan base from outside of Armagh, and many of the people I spoke to informed me that once we start to play in the championship they start to follow us.

All Ireland Club Quarter Final

Our game against London Champions Neasden Gaels, the English champions, has been fixed for Sunday the 16th of January 2011, the venue is Ruislip @ 1.30 pm. For further information go to our club website at www.crossrangers.com.

Christmas Greeting

On behalf of the club I wish all our members a very Happy Christmas and a prosperous New Year and hope 2011 will be as least as good as 2010. A special word of thanks to the Examiner and the Armagh Observer for all their help during the past year.

Christmas Party Night

Our Christmas party night was a big success, a special word of thanks to Mona and her staff for a lovely meal. The entertainment was of the highest order and we danced away to the small hours.

Scor Na Og

Congratulations to our young Ballad Group who took part in the County Final on Sunday night last. On this occasion they were not successful but they are very young and there is always next year, but we did pick the award for most improved club. Senior Scor will be starting shortly and we are looking for volunteers especially for Ceili and Set Dancing.
